

Dr. Mustafa Muhammad Muhammad Ali

Director of the Department

Practical experiences

Quality Engineer, Misr Cotton Trade and Ginning Company

Alexandria, Egypt, to the present time

- Follow up on quality and technical specifications in the supply chain sector and ensure their compliance.
- Follow up on quality work and technical specifications during the stages of the ginning sector, follow up on the operational efficiency of the facilities, overcome technical obstacles during the operation stages, and ensure conformity of the technical specifications of the final products before receiving them.
- Establishing the technical foundations, specifications, and numbers of Master Data that will be applied through the SAP program within the state's plan to develop work in companies affiliated with the Ministry of Business Sector.

Director of Shipping and Customs Clearance (logistique), Misr Cotton Trade and Ginning Company

Alexandria, Egypt, to the present time

- Shipping and clearing the company's incoming and exporting shipments.

- Determine shipping and clearance requirements and develop detailed plans to ensure completion on time and within budget.
- Work to improve procedures and implement them on sites.

Director of Administration in the Alexandria Incense Burner Sector, Misr Cotton Trade and Ginning Company (the Egyptian Cotton Pressing Unit in addition to the previous work)

Alexandria, Egypt, to the present time

- Providing support and service to customers importing and exporting cotton dealing on the site.
- Conducting fumigation and disinfection operations for shipments exported from Egypt and shipments imported from abroad from various foreign countries.
- Supervising the progress of the service process, raising the facility's operational efficiency, coordinating and attracting customers to reach the highest capacity and storage capacity of the facility and in accordance with security requirements.

Department Manager, Supply Chain Sector, Misr Cotton Trade and Ginning Company

Alexandria, Egypt, previously

- Follow up on purchases of necessary raw materials, whether raw cotton, production requirements, or packing materials.
- Follow up on auctions and the modern marketing system for cotton.
- Follow up on shipping and transportation operations and prepare their invoices.
- Preparing daily, monthly and seasonal statistics for purchases.
- Follow up on the company's cotton ginning operations and produce the necessary statistics daily.

Director of Security and Services Department, Joint Stock Company for Cotton Trade and Export

Alexandria, Egypt, previously

- Working and communicating with the competent sovereign and security authorities as required by the nature of the job in the position.
- Providing support and advice and preparing reports to be presented to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, appropriate to the nature of the work.
- Maintaining the facility and its affiliated branches, including their assets, documents, and the electronic security of the company's websites.
- Establishing a new security sector and qualifying some full-time human cadres to guard the company's facilities in sensitive and important sites to preserve them.

Planning Specialist, Joint Stock Company for Cotton Trade and Export

Alexandria, Egypt, previously

- Participate in developing technical plans in sectors related to the company.
- Follow up on the implementation of the established plan to achieve its target.
- Work and submit reports to decision makers regarding work in various sectors.

Sales officer, a group of companies for trading and selling medicines.

Alexandria, Egypt, until the present.

- Working as a direct sales officer to the public in several commercial chains.
- Requesting purchases from suppliers according to the site's needs and in proportion to the sales movement, taking into account achieving economic efficiency and profitability.
- Entering data for incoming orders and matching them.
- Review claims and set payment dates as needed.
- Working as assistant branch manager in a number of commercial chains.

education

Bachelor of Agricultural Sciences, Faculty of Agriculture, Assiut University, Egypt, 2003

Very good estimate.

Master's degree in Agricultural Economics and Business Administration, Faculty of Agriculture, Alexandria University, Egypt, 2015

A message entitled (Foreign Trade of Egyptian Cotton)

Excellent evaluation.

PhD in Agricultural Economics, Faculty of Agriculture, Alexandria University, Egypt, 2024

A message entitled (Producing, marketing and exporting Egyptian cotton in light of the current Egyptian agricultural development strategy)

Very good estimate.

Conduct and publish scientific research on cotton in accredited scientific journals:

- An econometric analysis of the factors affecting the demand for premium Egyptian long-staple cotton in its main markets.
- An economic analytical study of Egyptian cotton imports.

training courses:

- TOEFOL
- SAP program operating cycle from Atos
- Import standards and laws course from the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce on behalf of the Chairman of the Board of Directors.