SPECIALIST ACHIEVEMENTS

Throughout my extensive professional journey, I've achieved over 1,300 works including research papers, articles, reports, and translations, collaborating with 40 governmental and private organizations across 11 countries. With a focus on Gulf, Iranian, Arab, and European affairs. My extensive portfolio highlights my deep understanding of regional and global dynamics."

Published books like "Iran: Collapse at Home," "Persian Invasion of the Arab World," and "The Deconstructing of Nations" reflect my in-depth analysis. I've also contributed to journals and conferences, impacting academic discourse. As a keynote speaker, I address critical topics like regional security and political development, influencing policy.

Active participation in workshops ensures I stay current. Passionate about mentoring, I supervise graduate theses, nurturing future scholars. Moving forward, I'm committed to expanding research, collaborations, and contributing positively to my field.

"Furthermore, I offer specialized professional training in areas such as Risk and Crisis Management, International Politics Analysis, Professional Writing, and Public Speaking. Notably, I have provided training sessions for esteemed institutions including the Ministries of Foreign Affairs in Mauritania and Palestine."
